Overview

David is an Associate in the Hartford office of Boyle | Shaughnessy Law. David is a life-long Connecticut resident with a strong blue-collar background, having worked in automotive, retail, trucking, logistics, construction, and other industries.

David received his Juris Doctor from the University of Connecticut School of Law. During his time in law school, David continued to work in commercial trucking and acted as Editor for the New England chapter of the Antique Motorcycle Club of America, a position which he still holds today. Prior to joining Boyle | Shaughnessy David worked as a civil clerk for the Waterbury JD.
