Overview

Richard Pizzano is an Associate in the Boston, MA, and Manchester, NH offices of Boyle | Shaughnessy Law, where he serves as a member of the firm's general litigation practice group. Prior to joining Boyle | Shaughnessy Law, Richard was an associate at a midsize Boston-based firm focused primarily on insurance defense and medical malpractice.

Richard also joins the firm with experience in a wide range of real estate law issues as he has represented both individuals and property management companies in commercial as well as residential property litigation. In law school, Richard worked as a Law Clerk at a Boston-based plaintiff's firm as a member of the firm's personal injury and workman's compensation practice groups. Additionally, Richard served as a Law Clerk in both the Executive Office and the Senior Trial Unit at the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office. Richard also gained valuable legal research and writing experience as a member of the Moot Court Honor Board and Journal of Trial and Appellate Advocacy. He was also a member of the National Constitutional Law Moot Court team, where he received national recognition for his oral advocacy skills.

When not in the office, Richard enjoys cooking, watching sports, and spending time with his family, friends, and four-legged best friend, Lucy.
