Overview

Boyle | Shaughnessy Law's Transportation Law Group represents parties involved in all types of motor vehicle accidents, including a wide variety of transportation companies including trucks, buses, and limousines; as well as local, national and international truckload carriers, LTL carriers, moving companies, tank trucks, overnight delivery service companies, and common carriers. Our Attorneys have experience handling all aspects of transportation related matters including accident cases, cargo claims, and contractual-based claims.

Boyle | Shaughnessy Law Attorneys have broad experience dealing with accidents involving tractor trailers, large transports, buses, automobiles, and other forms of mass transportation. Also, we are actively involved in matters encompassing catastrophic loss from multiple vehicle collisions, wrongful death, serious personal injury, and property damage.

Boyle | Shaughnessy Law has developed a rapid response team, comprised of legal counsel, expert consultants, field adjusters, and investigators, who are available 24 hours a day to respond to any transportation emergency. We understand that an immediate response is often critical to keep an unfortunate situation in control.

Our Attorneys regularly conduct seminars for trucking companies, insurance companies, and industry groups regarding all aspects of transportation-related claims. Additionally, our Attorneys are members of transportation-related groups including TIDA (Trucking Industry Defense Association), the American Trucking Association (Safety & Loss Prevention Management Counsel), Transportation Lawyers Association, Massachusetts Trucking Association, and the Defense Research Institute (Trucking Law Committee). We have written numerous transportation articles in industry trade journals.
